Chinese factory deal may bring 1,000 jobs

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A CHINESE chemicals company could build a factory in the city – bringing 1,000 jobs.

The general manager of Shandong Aocter Chemical Company, Cao Junshan, was one of a number of business representatives from Gaotang County to visit the city on May 10.

He talked to the chamber of commerce and investigated the availability of commercial land, with a view to building a factory which would employ around 1,000 people.

The chamber said he was particularly interested in Milton Keynes due to its transport logistics, the ease with which the company could relocate here and the access to the labour market.

Former councillor in charge of finance, Liberal Democrat leader Sam Crooks, said he was 'delighted' by the news.

He said: "If you think of the new Network Rail development, which will bring 3,000 jobs to the city, it's exactly this kind of development that shows the confidence people have that we are coming out of the recession."

But he added: "We would need to have very careful talks about location."

Around 1,000 people would work at the factory and although some would be existing specialists and managers from within the company, it is expected hundreds of local jobs would be created.

Rita Spada, CEO of Milton Keynes and North Bucks Chamber of Commerce, told MK NEWS: "If such an investment would go ahead it would also mean the supply chain would open up a lot of new business for our local suppliers."

Mr Junshan has also looked at Birmingham and Hull as possible alternatives.

The chamber said the visitors, who also included the director of the Bureau of Commerce for Gaotang County, were also interested in the work it does and the support it provides in things like developing export markets.

The visit was just the latest Chinese interest in Milton Keynes.

As reported by this paper last week, academics and officials from two leading universities in China signed up to a higher education partnership with the city at a ceremony at the University Centre Milton Keynes on Thursday.

The partnership includes plans for organising a summer school, staff and student exchanges and joint degree programmes.

The delegation also visited the Open University and the technology park at Cranfield University.

Meanwhile, Milton Keynes-based ASI Solutions, an asphalt company, recently signed a £100million memorandum of understanding to support China's ambitious transport infrastructure plans.

Businesses to get neighbourly with new pilot scheme

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

BUSINESS and community groups will soon have a say in the development of the city.

As part of the Government's Localism Bill, eight 'frontrunners' across the country, including Milton Keynes, have been chosen to pilot a new Business Neighbourhood scheme.

Companies large and small will be able to come together and put forward development plans to the council for predominantly commercial areas, which in the city's case means Central Milton Keynes.

In a joint statement, the political group leaders of Milton Keynes Council said: "We all recognise that this area will be the one to lead the country out of the recession and developments such as this can only help us achieve that objective."

The scheme coincides with the idea of Neighbourhood Forums – local groups that would be empowered to draw up planning documents for their communities.

But following an announcement last week some Neighbourhood Forums, such as the one in Milton Keynes, can now include companies and become Business Neighbourhoods.

As a result, city firms are being invited to apply to the council to take part.

Jon Weymouth, development director for thecentre:mk, said: "We welcome last week's announcement, which places communities and job creating businesses at the centre of the planning process."

Milton Keynes is now being invited, through the council, to make a formal application to the Government to access support and funding to help cover expenses from developing a plan.

Becky's Atomic garden wins silver

A CITY garden designer picked up a silver award for her Atomic Journey garden at the Malvern Spring Gardening Show last Thursday.

Becky Hand, pictured, 22, of Woburn, who works at Frosts Garden Centre in Woburn Sands, was the runner-up in the competition to win a vocational sponsorship created by TV gardener Chris Beardshaw. She said: "I just want to thank my sponsors Frosts Garden Design, which built the garden for me."

Tip-offs to charity help boost city arrests

A CRIMEFIGHTING charity has achieved a 40 per cent increase in city arrests and charges in the last year thanks to anonymous tip-offs from residents.

From April 2010 to March 2011, Crimestoppers has worked with community safety partners and led targeted campaigns to tackle crimes such as burglary, counterfeiting and number plate theft.

John Gamon, chairman of Thames Valley Crimestoppers, said: "A huge thank you must go to the people of Milton Keynes for using the charity to pass on information about crime.

"Our results clearly show that, although anonymous, the information given to Crimestoppers is often pivotal in the police's fight against crime. We're extremely proud that Crimestoppers continues to play such a vital role in helping to make our local community a safer place to live."

"This year we launched Thames Valley's Most Wanted, which allows members of the public to look at pictures and e-fits and view CCTV footage of people currently wanted by the police in Thames Valley. In the first seven months alone, 42 of those featured have been arrested."

Crimestoppers operates the 24/7 0800 555 111 telephone number for people to pass on information about crimes anonymously. Information can also be passed on via the charity's website – www.crimestoppers-uk.org.

Villagers will join hands to raise money for their church

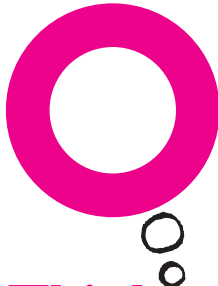

VILLAGERS will come together in July in an attempt to break the world record for the longest human chain and raise cash for their church.

Residents in Bow Brickhill will form a line up the hill towards the

All Saints Church and 'pass their pounds' to the top of the queue where the money will be collected by a surprise celebrity guest.

The money collected will go towards the repair of the buttresses on the outside of the church's tower. In October, MK NEWS reported the church and tower, which have survived the civil, Napoleonic and two World Wars, were surveyed by an abseil team to identify what repairs needed to be made.

Complaint after personal details leaked

RESIDENTS whose personal details were leaked online by Milton Keynes Council have filed an official complaint with the authority.

They have also received support from councillors and a city MP to get the play area at the centre of the online blunder moved.

As reported in last week's MK NEWS, dozens of people from Far Holme, Middleton, had information, including their names and telephone numbers, published on the council's website by mistake earlier this month. The error was made after they sent a survey to the authority complaining about problems with antisocial behaviour at the park.

This week the residents were backed in their fight to have the park relocated by their Milton Keynes Council ward councillors Sam Crooks and John Bint.

Cllr Bint said: "That location has a very high footfall of secondary school children.

"It's also in a crescent so noise travels very easily and it provides a circular bike track.

"I hope we're heading for the right decision."

Cllr Crooks has also requested the opening of a new park in Broughton be moved forward so the children have somewhere else to go.

Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, has also backed the fight to move the play area.

"It's an inappropriate place for the play area and I am keen to see the issue resolved as soon as possible, but it's important that the proper process is carried out by Milton Keynes Council to facilitate that," he said.

Fatal fire victim was father of an eight-week-old

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE man who died in a house fire on Friday has been named as 38-year-old David Grace.

MK NEWS believes Mr Grace, who was killed in the fire in Shearmans, Fullers Slade, has left behind two children, including an eight-week-old baby.

Thames Valley Police and Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service initially launched an inquiry into the incident but have now passed the investigation on to the coroner after deciding no-one else was involved.

When firefighters were called to the two-storey terraced house at around 12.50am, they found the fire was already 'well-developed' on the ground and first floor.

They managed to rescue Mr Grace after they found him in the kitchen, but he was pronounced dead at the scene. No-one else was in the house at the time of the fire.

A post-mortem took place on Monday and initial reports indicate he died from burns.

Station manager Gary Taylor, the incident commander, said: "While searching the house and extinguishing the fire, firefighters wearing breathing apparatus discovered an unconscious male adult in the kitchen on the ground floor.

"The casualty was quickly rescued and handed over to paramedics who were on scene and who shortly afterwards declared that the occupant was deceased.

Fire investigation officers at the scene

"Sadly, despite the best efforts of the crews on scene, who worked tirelessly to contain the fire and locate the casualty, they were unable to save him."

Neighbours have described their shock at hearing the news. One, who did not wish to be named, said: "It's very sad when you hear your own neighbour has passed away and it just shows anything can happen.

"It really makes you think you have to be careful."

Heritage issue misunderstood

SIR - In connection with your coverage on the proposed demolition of Cofferridge Close in Stony Stratford, it is worth adding that both the developers and Milton Keynes Council have seriously misunderstood the heritage issue.

On their own admission the developers have only looked at Cofferridge Close from an archaeological standpoint and due to a general lack of Roman or medieval skeletons there are no 'old' heritage reasons for retaining the existing buildings. However, there is the issue of 'new' heritage to be explored.

The good news is that in its Local Development Framework (LDF) Para. 15.2, the council stresses the need to 'identify MK's modern high quality architecture' and to 'avoid the loss of these recent historical assets'. But the bad news is that the same council supports putting Cofferridge Close into landfill.

Together with its landscape setting, it is a building complex of quality and represents a 'recent historical asset' and if anyone is in doubt they could check up Pevsner's Buckingham volume page 555 and read his flattering description.

Demolition arises because the council is ignoring Government Planning and Conservation Guidance (PPS5) plus its own Local Development Framework (LDF) conservation policy. This is a disgrace. I am all in favour of improving Stony's shopping facilities but knocking down Cofferridge Close represents a too heavy-handed approach.

It will gut the very heart of the town, blight it for easily the two years of the construction process and totally log-jam its streets with traffic upon completion.

I think that basically the existing buildings should be adjusted and reused. This would represent a more clever, humane and sustainable solution that would also respect the 'new heritage' dimension. If the much-spoken-about new 'localism' is to mean anything then the council needs to wake up and listen to local people.

M O'Sullivan
Latimer, Stony Stratford

Concerns over parking plan

SIR - You reported on May 11 that 'A review of the decision to scrap free city centre parking will be one of the top priorities for the Conservatives if they take over the running of the council'. This sounds highly ominous.

At a time when lollipop ladies are being sacked and libraries and day care centres closed over the UK, why should the MK Tories give this top priority?

We were promised the greenest government ever just a year ago and surely local Tories should be listening to this message from the centre and acting in a compatible way.

Frederick Toates
Marshworth, Milton Keynes

A casino would be wrong

SIR - It is disappointing to read of the applications that have been submitted for a casino in Milton Keynes, and the fact that Milton Keynes Council seems committed to awarding the licence for it by the end of the year.

It seems ludicrous that in the current climate of cost-saving, cut backs to social services and ever-shrinking council budgets, the aspiration to allow a casino in Milton Keynes remains on the agenda.

There is a massive amount of evidence that shows the lasting harm caused by casinos. Milton Keynes has had to withdraw funding for many support services within the region and yet by supporting the casino project it is actively encouraging further social decay.

It seeks to consider which application will offer 'the greatest benefit to Milton Keynes'. I hope it will assess the applications on which will cause the least harm. The outcome from that adjudication is simple - Milton Keynes should not have a casino.

Complain about OAP cuts

SIR - I am very concerned over the way in which the latest cuts to the budgets of elderly people are being done by Milton Keynes Council as they are totally unacceptable.

The council removed free swimming for old people and it has decided to remove free concessionary bus travel for people over 60 during the peak hours meaning they have to pay full fare.

This is definitely going to affect vulnerable and low income old age pensioners. The old people on the city estates who depend on the bus cannot afford the full fare required to travel before 9.30am. I know several people over 60 who work part-time to supplement their meagre pension to pay for household expenses such as gas, electricity and telephone bills.

There was no proper consultation with the people regarding the withdrawal of free bus travel before 9.30am and there are other ways of making savings instead of victimising vulnerable old people.

I urge pensioners to write to their local parish council and their local Milton Keynes councillors expressing their concern.

Arun Vaidyanathan

Monorail economics

SIR - In answer to the question asked by Don Douglas in the May 11 edition of MK NEWS, this is from my sister in Armidale, New South Wales, Australia.

The Sydney monorail (now metrorail) is a circle 3.6km long around the main shopping area. It was opened in July 1988 at a cost of 70 million Australian dollars (approximately £28million as in 1988).

Inserted into a fully built-up area it would obviously cost a lot more than building an equivalent in Milton Keynes from the Coachway to the central railway station above the central strip of the grid road (H5 or H6) and Midsummer Boulevard.

To answer Mr Douglas' other query about why the shopping centre is so remote from the railway station, the shopping centre site is almost level with Midsummer Boulevard. I think you will find that the railway station was almost an afterthought in the creation of the shopping area and business district. For many years the stations in Bletchley and Wolverton were considered to be adequate, serving the existing towns of Fenny Stratford and Stony Stratford, with Newport Pagnell also reasonably attainable from the latter.

Mr J Lean
Sokeman Close, Greenleys

A reminder to use your vote

SIR - I am obviously disappointed to have lost the election for Campbell Park by just two votes. But I am hopeful the closeness of the recent election could still inspire another positive outcome.

Among the commiserations and kind words I have received, several people have already spoken of their regret at not voting on May 5.

It is of course incredibly important for people to use their vote, whatever their political beliefs, and this result shows just how crucial your vote could be.

Of course Councillor Cec Tallack received the most votes and I would like to congratulate him on a deserved, albeit slim, victory. However, just a handful of votes could potentially have sent a powerful message to a tired Liberal Democrat council.

I hope many of the people who did not vote will look at this close result and decide next time they will vote. We never know whether our vote will be the one vote that makes the difference.

Paul Williams
Sent by e-mail

Greens are given hope

SIR - I would like to use the columns of your newspaper to thank all those who voted for me in the local elections.

In Bletchley and Fenny Stratford, 545 residents voted Green - a record for the ward and more than double last year's total (in fact we were the only party to increase our actual vote from last year).

We didn't win, but our high share of the vote demonstrates that a significant number of people reject the three main parties' support for cuts. It also demonstrates that, in local elections, people are willing to give weight to Green candidates who work hard all year round and lead the way on issues that local people care about - such as the landfill site, and opposition to nursery closures and the Salden Chase development.

I would like to express my gratitude to those residents I met on the doorsteps and in the streets for the warm reception they gave me. As someone who has lived in Bletchley all his life, I always knew that Bletchley and Fenny people were tolerant and kind-hearted, but it was a pleasure to have this confirmed in practice.

Paul Bowler
MK Green Party

Many thanks to electorate

SIR - May I, through your paper, thank all the 1,086 people who voted for me in the Bradwell Ward.

The sheer volume of people who took the time and trouble to vote for me has been very heartening.

I must also thank those people who helped deliver leaflets and letters. You know who you are and I am grateful for your help. I will remain ever helpful to those who need help and assistance in solving issues that you may have.

Beaten but not out yet.

Lib Dem leader set to lobby for Olympic flame to light up MK on route through UK

A CITY councillor has claimed it would be 'unthinkable' for the Olympic torch to pass by Milton Keynes.

Liberal Democrat leader Sam Crooks is desperate for the famous flame to visit as part of the London 2012 torch relay and is set to meet with Olympic officials to argue the city's case.

Overnight stops for the torch have already been confirmed for Cambridge, Luton and Oxford

But the actual route is yet to be determined, so Milton Keynes could become a stop on the way.

Mr Crooks said: "I would put this in the same category as our World Cup bid as it would put us on the national stage this could be huge for the city.

"We are already on the sporting map so it would be unthinkable to have the torch go past and ignore us."

The meeting with the London 2012 representatives will be held in Guildford on Wednesday, June 2 and will be the last opportunity for Milton Keynes' case to be heard.

MK's new Poet Laureate aims to give verse a big boost in the city

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS

kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes has become just one of around a dozen places in the UK to have appointed a Poet Laureate.

Mark Niel, 47, from Pennyland, was made the city's first Poet Laureate by outgoing mayor, Councillor Debbie Brock, at a meeting at the Civic Offices last Tuesday.

He has been chosen in recognition of his efforts to promote poetry and inspire fellow poets with his group Tongue in Chic.

In this ceremonial role as Poet Laureate, Mr Niel will support new mayor, Councillor Alan Richards, at a variety of seasonal occasions throughout the year.

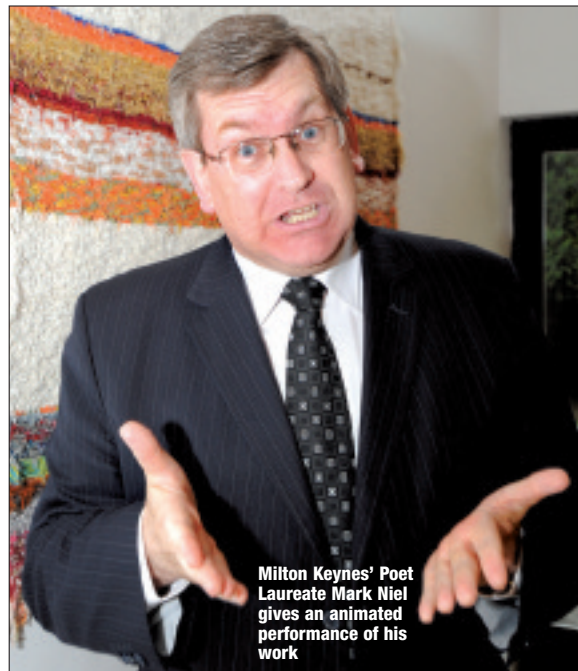

He said: "I am really thrilled because it wasn't something I expected."

"I've always been proud to represent Milton Keynes and now I can do so officially, that's a wonderful feeling."

"I hope to encourage others to read, write and listen to more poetry and continue to find opportunities to showcase the wealth of talent from our town."

Mr Niel started performing his own poetry for the first time three years ago.

Since then, he has given more than 200 performances and has represented the city at events such as the Camden Crawl poetry 'slam'.

Milton Keynes' Poet Laureate Mark Niel gives an animated performance of his work

He also worked alongside Cllr Brock in judging the city's Royal Wedding Poetry Competition in April.

Cllr Brock said: "Mark's a really great character and he's already out there representing Milton Keynes. He's just the kind of person who deserves this title.

"It's another way of celebrating landmark occasions through poetry."

Other places in the UK that have their own Poet Laureate include Birmingham, Canterbury and Warwickshire.

Town prepares for Big George's final journey

A HIGH Street is set to come to a standstill on Friday lunchtime when the funeral of larger-than-life Big George Webley takes place.

The family of Big George have invited mourners to gather in the High Street of his home town of Stony Stratford as the funeral procession passes at 1pm.

Big George died earlier this month, aged 53, at his family home and after the procession passes through the town a private ceremony will be held at Crownhill.

An ever-popular figure in Milton Keynes, George spent the last five years presenting a weekday overnight programme on radio station BBC London.

He was also a musician, composing signature tunes for hit TV shows including Have I Got News For You, and in 2006 he released a theme tune to back England's World Cup bid.

Volcanic ash sparks concern for people hoping to fly

HOLIDAYMAKERS are worried their flights could be cancelled due to another volcanic ash cloud.

The drifting ash from an Icelandic volcanic eruption in Iceland on Saturday means thousands of passengers are facing UK flight cancellations.

Jackie Lines, of Newport

Pagnell, is due to fly to Turkey tomorrow, but she is now worried her flight from Luton Airport could be cancelled.

She said: "It's so frustrating, nobody knows what's happening yet. You wait so long for your holiday and the prospect of it being cancelled is just awful."

Just over a year ago another volcanic eruption in Iceland caused widespread disruption across Europe, including the closure of UK airspace, amid concerns about the damage the ash could cause to engine aircraft.

If you have been affected by the ash cloud call Kirsten Rawlins on 01908 689581, or e-mail kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk.

Talking: Prime Minister David Cameron at Making a Difference during his Big Society speech. He chatted also with youngsters, below

PM's visit to tell of 'gritty' Big Society

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS

kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

THE Prime Minister visited Milton Keynes on Monday to announce his latest plans for the Big Society.

David Cameron spoke at former bus station The Buszy, CMK, about the new Giving White Paper, which was published the same day.

The document sets out plans for more than £40 million of additional support for the voluntary sector in an attempt to kick-start public donations of time and money.

Initiatives will include donating at cash machines and by mobile phone and the use of social networking sites to promote volunteering.

Mr Cameron was joined by Nick Hurd, cabinet minister for Civil Society, who introduced the White Paper in the House of Commons.

The Buszy is home to city charity

Make A Difference (MAD) which was the first in Milton Keynes to be given a Big Society award by Mr Cameron in February.

The charity, set-up six years ago, works to inspire young people in Milton Keynes to better their lives through positive action and volunteering.

Denise Davis-Boreham, chief executive of MAD, said: "It was absolutely fantastic - we're thrilled."

"We get young people interested in volunteering, which is what the Big Society is all about."

Giving his speech, Mr Cameron said he was pleased to be in Milton Keynes and emphasised the important role strong families, communities and relationships have in the Big Society.

He said: "Strong families are the foundation of a bigger, stronger society."

"The Big Society is not some fluffy add-on to more gritty and more important subjects. This is about as gritty and important as it gets."

Norman's raising cash to say thanks

A MAN whose life was saved by the hospital's cancer unit has raised £1,600 for it in just two months.

Norman Dawson, 74, was diagnosed with lymphoma, a type of cancer involving immune system cells, and received life-saving treatment from Milton Keynes Hospital's Macmillan Unit.

He is now in remission and has nothing but glowing praise for the unit nurses who he believes saved his life.

He said: "The care I received was second to none and I can't praise them enough."

"It's a very happy atmosphere there despite the people being ill and that's thanks to the staff. They couldn't do enough for me."

Norman is now committed to raising as much money as he can for the unit, which he hopes will contribute to, among other things, a new water feature for the garden to make patients more relaxed during their stay.

The money he has raised so far has come from a variety of different fundraising events and the Watling Street Stony Stratford Masonic Lodge.

For information on donating to the Macmillan Unit or any part of the hospital, contact Vanessa Bootle, fundraising manager, on 01908 826690, or email fundraising@mkhospital.nhs.uk.

Council's cabinet set to be all Tory

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

MK NEWS can exclusively reveal the people who are expected to be in charge of making decisions about Milton Keynes this year.

After weeks of political horsetrading between and within the three main parties, the seven decision-making cabinet members at Milton Keynes Council have been selected.

The Conservative group, after gaining four seats and becoming the council's largest party in the local elections earlier this month, has chosen to form a minority administration, meaning the cabinet would be made up entirely of its members.

Although the Liberal Democrats and Labour could have joined to make a majority coalition, as reported by this paper last week the Lib Dems have chosen to be in opposition.

In a speech he was due to make at a full council meeting last night, new Lib Dem leader, Councillor Sam Crooks, said there are two main jobs for the new administration to address.

"There is increasing evidence that our city is developing as a two-speed city, with people excluded from all that it has to offer by not having a job, by inadequate housing, or by lack of transport."

"We will be looking to the new administration to remedy these injustices and not to add to them."

Cllr Crooks was also expected to highlight the £17million budget gap which needs to be filled, which he claims could rise to around £20million with inflation, adding: "We will not hesitate to oppose any of the measures that you [the cabinet] put forward to meet that £20million gap if we believe that they are harming the people of this city."

Speaking to MK NEWS, Andrew Geary, who is expected to be the new Conservative leader of the council, said the coming year was going to be 'extremely challenging'.

He added: "We've got some real problems that we've inherited that we need to resolve."

"We live in an area that we've got to move forward, and we've got to make significant progress in the first year to turn us in the right direction."

Although the make-up of the cabinet still had to be rubber stamped last night, Cllr Geary told MK NEWS the following people would be in charge and gave details of what they would be responsible for and why they were selected:

ANDREW GEARY, ward councillor for Hanslope Park – Leader, Strategic Finance and Communications.

"The Conservative group has entrusted me as its leader. I have significant experience of local government, have recently been re-elected for a second term and run my own business for 20 years, building up a reasonably successful farming business."

"I hope I will bring a balance of experience and youthful vigour and I'm hoping this cabinet will set me in good stead."

DAVID HOPKINS, ward councillor for Danesborough – Deputy Leader, Economic Development and Enterprise, IT and Broadband

"David has worked in telecommunications for 30 years. He also has a wide background dealing with local authorities, brings 21 years' experience as a local councillor, which is massively significant, and 30 years business and enterprise experience, so I think that makes him highly qualified."

JOHN BINT, ward councillor for Middleton – Transport and Highways

"This seems to have been the portfolio that, every time someone's got it, they seem to lose their seat. However, I'm confident John Bint can buck that trend."

"He's taken an active interest in highways since elected simply because of the issues in his ward and he has got a good insight into the strategy of how it all works."

"I believe there's a huge job to be done around several burning issues and I believe he's got the necessary skills to run this fairly but firmly."

ANDREW MORRIS, ward councillor for Bletchley and Fenny Stratford – Growth and Development

"Andrew has experience from various policy development select committees he has sat on and last year chaired the development control committee."

"He has a good grasp on planning issues and related issues including development control and I think will be very well suited to for that job. Strategic housing will also fall into this area."

ANDREW DRANSFIELD, ward councillor for Loughton Park – Children and Young People

"He was the recent chairman of the children and young people select committee, 12 years a Buckinghamshire county councillor and 11 years on Milton Keynes Council."

"He started on day one on the education committee at Buckinghamshire and has had a clear interest in children and young people ever since."

DEBBIE BROCK, ward councillor for Olney – Adult Services and Health

"As mayor last year, she touched the lives of a huge number of people of all ages. "I've had vast numbers of people saying she would be a huge asset to any portfolio – she's always had a heart for people so would have easily fit into the children or older people portfolio. "She's forward looking and has the necessary caring qualities."

PETER GEARY, ward councillor for Olney – Transformational Change, Housing, Sport, Leisure and Culture

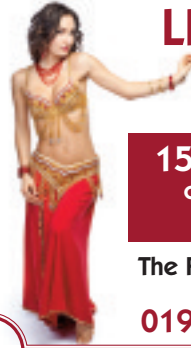

"The council is looking to deliver its services in different ways and we need to deliver them more smartly rather than just look to cut them across the board."

"Peter has a successful track record in business as a farmer as well and has planned to farm very differently to 25 years ago, recognising a farmer needs to be a businessman as well."

"He's good at adapting and transforming and I think he'll go into that role very well."

Villagers plan to set up shop

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS

kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A COMMUNITY has come together to try and put a vital service back in its village.

Sherington residents are uniting to create a volunteer-run convenience store to support local producers and save villagers money.

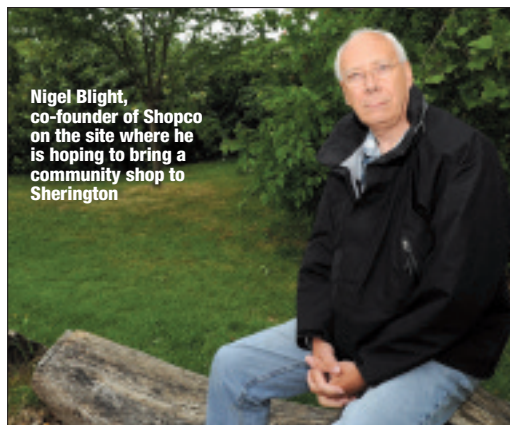

The village's only shop closed 18 months ago and its post office shut in May 2009. And as reported in last week's MK NEWS, Milton Keynes Council has given permission for one of its pubs to be turned into a residential property.

Nigel Blight, 56, of Carters Close, Sherington, is the co-founder of Shopco – the action group set up to organise the shop, which could also house a post office.

Mr Blight said: "It will be a shop run by the community for the community."

"We're putting services back into the village and putting into play David Cameron's Big Society."

"All profits made by the shop will be put back into

Nigel Blight, co-founder of Shopco on the site where he is hoping to bring a community shop to Sherington the community – donated to youth clubs and nurseries to buy facilities.

"Residents are spending around £250 a year travelling to Olney or Newport Pagnell to get their shopping."

"We want a shop with everyday items and local produce."

He added that, according to surveys carried out in the village, more than 90 per cent of residents want a shop and people have already volunteered to work there when it opens.

But Shopco needs to raise £55,000 to buy a temporary building and stock and furnish it and is appealing for donations and people to take out shares in the shop, costing from £10 to £20,000.

Anyone interested should call Mr Blight on 01908 760100, or e-mail caroline.barrass@gmail.com.

Group's concern over cost of fares

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

FEARS rail ticket prices could go up for city commuters have been raised after a controversial report was released last week.

Milton Keynes Rail Users Group (MKRUG) has said it is worried commuters could be hit in the pocket if the McNulty report, a Government-backed independent review into the rail industry and fares, is implemented.

UK fares are already the highest in Europe and, although the report released on Thursday states there should be no overall increase in prices, MKRUG believes the proposals will mean fares will rise.

Lynne Button, chairman of MKRUG, said passengers in this area are already facing rises in regulated fares of eight per cent.

And she believes the recommendations in the report, if implemented as outlined, will lead to the use of smart cards and more management to deal with passenger demand.

"For people in this area we believe this will increase further the fare rises they are facing, particularly those people commuting to London," she said.

Ms Button also went on to criticise the proposals to diversify the rail infrastructure's ownership, as it would 'provide opportunities for excuses' for things like breakdowns.

She also called for more stringent performance measures.

However, she did praise other aspects of the report, such as longer-term franchises.

The report is expected to inform a Government White Paper on the industry later in the year.

NEW SUMMER DATE!

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Veteran cracks draw

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A SECOND World War veteran received a real birthday treat after discovering she had the winning ticket in a prize draw.

Dorothy Roe, who worked at Bletchley Park towards the end of the war, won a Golden Egg designed especially for the park by Sarah Faberge in the Mayor of Milton Keynes Grand Prize Draw last week, just days after her 85th birthday.

Mrs Roe was visiting Bletchley on a day trip from Blackpool with her family to celebrate her big day.

While she was there her daughter treated her to a ticket in the draw, which was to raise money for park.

She said she couldn't believe it when she won.

"I thought it was a hoax," she said. "I was flabbergasted, gobsmacked, and I even forgot to ask the man on the phone his name."

Towards the end of the war Mrs Roe worked on the famous Bombe machines, designed by Alan Turing and Gordon Welchman, to work out the setting for Enigma every day.

The CEO of the Bletchley Park Trust, Simon Greenish, said: "I was delighted to be able to ring up Mrs Roe with the good news.

"It's fitting that the prize should go to a veteran as the egg is embellished with the Bletchley Park veteran's badge."

The prize draw was one of several events organised by ex-mayor Councillor Debbie Brock, which helped raise more than £20,000 for her chosen charities Bletchley Park and Willen Hospice.

The former mayor also turned up to support National Hat Week at John Lewis, which was celebrated with a free performance by members of the MK City Orchestra. Customers enjoyed music from the hit show My Fair Lady as part of the event last Thursday.

Mental health charity calls for compassion

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A CHARITY campaign has urged people to have an open mind about the well-being of their work colleagues.

Milton Keynes Mind, part of the national Mind charity, ran a number of activities across the city to promote Mind Week last week, which focussed on the difficulties of well-being in the workplace.

The charity claims one in six employees is currently experiencing stress, anxiety or depression, but states very few people actually want to talk about it. It estimates this problem costs the UK workplace more than £25billion each year.

Every year the Milton Keynes branch, which has been based in Netherfield for 40 years, holds around 3,000 one-to-one counselling sessions with people being affected by a mental illness.

Steve McNay, chief executive of MK Mind, said: "Experiencing mental ill health is the elephant in the room and that's why we are looking to work with businesses locally to build healthy work places."

Last week the charity organised an open session with its art

MK Mind's Steve McNay (with long hair) during the coaching session with the Dons group, launched a mental health football session with MK Dons' coaches and had an open day for the community garden it had created at York House, CMK.

But to keep up its good work, MK Mind needs more funding.

Steve added: "We downsized considerably last year, we lost six members of staff and had to cut back on a lot of other things."

The charity is holding an auction to raise further funds on June 9. For more information, visit www.mkmind.org.uk, or call 01908 678540.

History of JPs is put in the dock

THE city's magistrates' court will be opening its doors on Saturday, June 11 to mark 650 years of Justices of the Peace.

Over the next three weeks, MK NEWS will be exploring three of the themes on display at the open day. This week, we take a look at the history of magistrates.

IN 1361 King Edward III established Justices of the Peace (JPs) as an integral part of the machinery of justice.

Over the next 200 years, their powers increased and dealt with offences such as murder, assault, robbery, theft, rape, arson and witchcraft.

They were first called magistrates in the 18th century and were often political appointees rather than just the landed gentry or clergymen.

In Victorian times JPs lost their responsibility for local government to councils and it was not until 1919 that women were first appointed as JPs.

Sarah Clarke has been a magistrate at the Milton Keynes court since 2004.

"I've always been interested in

Justice of the Peace: Sarah Clarke at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court

the law," she said.

"I wanted to help in the community and when I had a bit of time from my family responsibilities I decided to do it.

"We take it very seriously and we want to be fair and equal to all parties, not just the defendant but also the victims."

On June 11 the court will reenact a number of historical cases.

Entry is free and there will be stalls run by partner agencies as well as guided tours that will include the cells.

Pub shortlisted for 'best music venue'

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A ROCK pub has reached the finals of a competition to find Britain's best small music venue.

The Craufurd Arms, in Wolverton, is one of five places in the Midlands region shortlisted by internationally-renowned music magazine NME, and fans of the pub can now vote for it as Britain's Best Small Venue.

As well as the usual events such as quizzes, the pub also has a 250-capacity room where it holds live gigs by local and national rock talent.

Owner Jenny Fuszard, 21, said: "When we got the shortlist through and saw we were in the top five for the region it was really exciting to see that what I'm doing here is working."

Jenny has been at the pub for two-and-a-half years and believes that it already has a rich

Jenny Fuszard at The Craufurd Arms, which has been listed by NME as a top small venue musical history, with claims that The Cure and The Specials played there before they became superstars.

And even if it doesn't win, Jenny said the fact it has been shortlisted will be great for the venue.

"Just the exposure is great," she said. "More agencies and bands will see we are a venue, and a very good one at that. What people don't realise is the money we get goes straight back into the pub and we are trying to make it bigger and better for more people."

To vote visit www.nme.com/smallvenues.

The winner will be announced on June 14.

Claire's charity trek in memory of mum

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS

kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A STUDENT whose mum spent a decade battling with cancer is hiking 88km in her memory.

Claire McManus, 21, of Bletchley, will walk the Scottish West Highland Way from June 24-28 in a bid to raise £5,000 for Breast Cancer Care.

Her mum Marjorie, who died from breast cancer last August aged just 48, was born in Milngavie where the trek will begin.

Claire, a student at Glasgow University, said: "I decided to channel my grief into something positive, with the aim of raising funds and awareness for breast cancer while paying tribute to my mum's bravery and compassion towards others with the disease.

"She'd been ill since the age of 38 and during that time she did a lot of work for charity - she took part in Race for Life and would donate to charity monthly. She was also a very strong supporter of Breast Cancer Care because she knew what it was like to live with the illness and how it could affect people.

"She would always brighten everyone up when she was in the cancer ward in hospital too - all the nurses said she was an inspiration.

Claire McManus and her mum Marjorie

"Walking the Highlands is a bit of a joke really. My mum always said that I was the slowest walker she knew, because I never really enjoyed exercise."

Marjorie worked as a healthcare assistant at Boots pharmacy at thecentre:mk for 15 years and the store is now helping to raise funds for Breast Cancer Care.

To sponsor Claire visit www.justgiving.com/charles-mcmanus or visit Boots at thecentre:mk to buy charity merchandise, such as badges, or pick up a donation form.

Pupils get the bug for insect garden

A FASCINATING 'bug city' has been created by pupils in an attempt to win an award for their school.

Eleven students from Oakgrove Academy worked with the Parks Trust, Wyevalle Garden Centre and their local neighbourhood warden to transform an unused patch of waste ground at the school into a colourful, miniature eco garden for wildlife.

Working closely with Nicky Saunders of the Parks Trust they built an 'insect city' from a log stack, complete with miniature ladybird towers.

Wyevalle supplied bird feeders and seed to keep our feathered friends happy and Michael Kerrigan, a neighbourhood warden with Milton Keynes Council, arranged for several hundred daffodil bulbs to be delivered for planting.

The garden is part of Oakgrove's campaign to win Green Flag status, a recognised Eco Schools award organised by Keep Britain Tidy.

Year Seven student Steffen Down, 11, said: "It has been great fun being outside and planting and we want the garden to attract lots of wildlife and be here for the future student generations."

Melissa Gardner, deputy head-

Greenfingered: Year seven students Jake Lewis and Olivia Burton, both aged 11, examining some of their handiwork in the garden teacher and a keen ecologist, said: "We will be closely monitoring the types and numbers of insects attracted to our miniature 'bug city', as well as the varieties of birds that visit the garden.

"This is the first of a number of projects we have planned like this.

"Our academic record is a strong one and we are a very popular school, but Eco Schools Green Flag status will give us another string to our bow."

MK's Hip Hop dancers to represent England

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS

kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

YOUNG dancers from Milton Keynes will represent England in the European and World Hip Hop Championships

Nine-year-old Lewis Wells, from Bradwell Common, is one of the seven city youngsters from Wolverton-based dance group Frantic-UK who have places in the under-18s England Hip Hop dance team.

His mum Nichola said: "It's an amazing achievement for a nine-year-old. I'm really excited. It seems that all the hard work has finally paid off."

"Lewis is a die-hard dancer and although he has nine hours of lessons a week, he practises at the slightest opportunity – be it in his bedroom or while we're out."

The youngsters will now compete in the IDO European Hip Hop, Electric Boogie and Break Dance Championships 2011 in Denmark from July 1-3. And if they're successful, they will attend the Hip Hop International Championships in Las Vegas in the USA from July 26-31.

Every dancer from Frantic-UK who took part in the trials at the Indigo O2 Arena in London earlier this month made it through to the championships.

Founder Emi-Lu Daley said: "I never expected all of us to go through – one dancer would have been great. We were the talk of the contest."

"The trophies were bigger than most of the kids! They've done us proud, and they're so dedicated."

The race is now on to raise the funds needed to be able to send the dancers to the championships.

"We now need to raise money for the children to go, as it will cost up to £200 per family just for flights," added Emi-Lu.

Anyone who would like to donate money to the group can e-mail dance@frantic-uk.com, or call 01908 320023.

National honours: Emi-Lu Daley with winning members from Frantic-UK

Paul's pie is in line for national award

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

WE ALL love a good pie, which is why one chef has a cause for celebration this week.

Paul Capener, 57, head chef at the Kingfisher Hotel and Country Club in Deanshanger, has won through to the final of England's Best Steak Pie competition with his special Stockman's Pie.

The competition is run by the English Beef and Lamb Executive (EBLEX), the organisation for beef and lamb levy payers and industry experts, so Paul said he didn't want to play around with the filling when creating his pie.

He said: "The beef is sourced very locally anyway so I thought I wouldn't mess about with it."

"The pastry is made with stilton cheese and if you've ever had a fillet steak with stilton, you know how nice it is."

"When I found out I'd made the final I was elated and I'm hopeful I'll do well."

More than 65 pies were entered into the first round of the competition and the Stockman's Pie was one of only 16 to make it through to the final. The final round of judging will be taking place today.

Hugh Judd, EBLEX food service project manager, said: "With 16 companies all competing for the title of England's Best Steak Pie, the final is certainly going to be exciting."

"We wish Kingfisher Hotel and Country Club the very best of luck, and look forward to announcing the overall winner next month."

Win a wedding with MKNEWS

HAVE you been dreaming of that perfect white wedding?

And have things like money or family issues stopped you turning that dream into reality?

Well, perhaps MK NEWS can help, as we have a wedding to give away – worth £20,000.

Up to 80 guests will enjoy a reception at Horwood House, which will also provide a photographer and even a civil service if you don't want to get married in a church.

You will also get an evening hog roast buffet provided for up to 80 people by Flamed Foods Co.

Kuoni and Air Mauritius are offering a £5,000 Mauritian honeymoon, and White Orchid Weddings will provide bridal and menswear up to the value of £1,000.

White Orchid Weddings, situated in the idyllic grounds of Wakefield Country Courtyard in Potterspur, specialises in bridal wear and has an excellent collection of wedding gowns from designers such as Amanda Wyatt and Ella, bridesmaid dresses by Venus and Veromia and menswear hire by Cameron Ross.

A spokesman said: "We are proud to be sponsoring the MK NEWS wedding competition and look forward to welcoming the winner. We are open six days a week, Tuesday to Saturday from 10am to 5pm and Sunday between 11am and 4pm. Please come and browse our collection, or call 01327 811558 for an appointment."

If that wasn't enough, Decesare hairdressers is offering a bridal package worth about £240 and Bobbi Brown is offering its complimentary make-up service.

John Lewis will be offering its gift list service, starting it off with £200 worth of vouchers, as well as helping the mother of the bride look her best by providing a fashion advisor to help her pick her £500 outfit.

Waitrose will provide the wedding cake, Calcutta Brasserie will provide 25 bottles of champagne and Ruth's Floral Design Studio will provide a flower package worth around £400.

Lasaderm is offering a £150 voucher that can be redeemed by the winning bride or groom against any treatment offered by the clinic.

To top off this fabulous competition, Whittlebury Hall will provide a meal for two in its Murrays fine dining restaurant on the winning couple's first wedding anniversary.

To enter fill in the coupon, or visit www.mk-news.co.uk. Anyone who would like more information about Horwood House can email horwoodsaleslead@principal-hayley.com, or call 01296 722100.

Terms and conditions:
Horwood House: The wedding

needs to be in 2011 or by the end of June 2012. Winners can add more guests or upgrade packages at Horwood House for an extra charge. There is no cash alternative for the prize.

Kuoni: Seven nights half-board for two people in a double superior room, flying economy with Air Mauritius. The prize is valid from January to July 2012. The seats on the flight are subject to availability and peak periods are excluded, e.g. Christmas/Easter/school holidays and popular departure days of the week are sometimes not possible due to availability.

Bobbi Brown: This is a complimentary service, with no prize value.

JACK SPARROW

The Lonely Island featuring Michael Bolton

IF YOU want my opinion, which I hope you do seeing as you're reading this, the best comedy movies are those that are played entirely straight.

No sly winks to the audience, no crowd-pleasing jokes and no clowning around.

The same thing applies to comedy songs. Very few of those actually work. I can think of The Chicken Song by Spitting Image, Stutter Rap by Morris Minor and the Majors and When We Collide by Matt Cardle, but after that it's a bit of a struggle. This, on the other hand, is a work of comic genius.

There are plenty of R&B songs doing the rounds that incorporate rappers talking about their plans for the evening (more often than not ending with them getting some well-earned kip in the company of a newly-made friend), and some of them feature loveydovey choruses sung by a guest star. This is that concept, only turned on its head.

The idea is that Mr Bolton is the guest singer, but the lyrics he's contributed to the chorus have nothing to do with the rapping.

"We're off to a club and we intend to thoroughly enjoy ourselves," is the idea behind the verses. Fair enough, but once the chorus starts their guest chooses to sing about Jack Sparrow from the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise instead. I am not joking.

"This is the tale of Captain Jack Sparrow, pirate so brave on the seven seas," he sings. Righto.

The next verse begins with an acknowledgement that the chorus wasn't what the rappers were expecting, but Bolton's not finished. While they try to keep things on track, he then goes on to reference Keira Knightley, Johnny Depp and giant squids before moving onto other films including Forrest Gump and Scarface, all delivered with his trademark wails and howls.

As you'd expect from a song from this genre, there are a few naughty words sprinkled around, but to be fair they have never been sung so beautifully.

Finally, in case you're wondering just how much of a good sport Michael Bolton really is, watch the video. Because of this three minute song, I've forgiven him for his output of the preceding 21 years. I still can't listen to the 'other stuff', but now this exists to balance things out.

This is one of those songs where compliments are due to everybody concerned.

BLETCHLEY PARK

FORTIES FAMILY FESTIVAL

Sunday-Bank Holiday Monday, 10.30am-5pm

TWO days of family fun at Bletchley's best kept secret featuring a range of wartime displays and re-enactment groups.

Deco in Style will recreate a Second World War command centre plotting table and Sittingbourne Home Front Living History Group will be recreating a wartime rest centre and Military Police mobile checkpoint.

There will be a London Bomb Disposal display, as well as The Northern Forties re-enactment group with both RAF and Navy displays.

On the musical front, Steven Brown's Musical Melodies will perform classic songs from the period, while the Lindyhoppers will demonstrate their dancing talents at the 1940s disco.

You can catch up on all the latest trends as Allied Assortment will be showing off everyday and elegant fashion, from swimsuits to wedding dresses, while putting on a show that will have your sides splitting with laughter.

Meanwhile, a selection of evocative wartime cinema reels will be showing in Bletchley Park's wartime Enigma cinema and visitors young and old can enjoy taking part in a craft workshop and having a go at making a wartime toy.

Weather conditions allowing,
there will also be a rare opportunity to see some Second World War airpower when the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight makes a flypast by a Lancaster, Spitfire and Hurricane on Sunday.

The event will also feature entertaining talks by Bletchley
Park volunteers, such as Joan Draper, who will speak about life as a wartime evacuee.

All of Bletchley Park's other attraction will be open, including the museum of modern computing.

Among other things, visitors can see the new Enigma display case housing one of the largest collections of Enigma machines, including the famous Abwehr Enigma Machine.

Bletchley Park also holds the famous Lorenz and other mechanical cipher systems, along with the Bombe and Colossus rebuilt.

The Home Front exhibition has the Toys and Memorabilia Collection with playthings and domestic artefacts.

Other historical items are on show at the Maritime Display and Model Railway exhibitions, while various vintage vehicles, including two 1930s Austins featured in the film The Eagle Has Landed, a Talbot and 1938 Ambulance used in the film Enigma, will be displayed.

Other things to see include the Churchill Collection, which provides a unique glimpse into the spirit of the man who famously described the workers of Bletchley Park as "The geese that laid the golden eggs, but never cackled."

NEWTON LONGVILLE

NEWTON LONGVILLE FESTIVAL OF TRANSPORT

Sunday, 10am-5pm

ORGANISERS are aiming for an event which will be bigger and better than ever when this popular festival returns on Sunday.

Vehicles ranging from vintage tractors to Ferraris were on display last year and a similar range of vehicles is expected this time around.

In fact, last year's selection was rated as the best the festival has ever seen, so this year's entries have a tough act to follow.

Prizes will be up for grabs in a number of different categories, with entry forms available at www.festival-of-transport.co.uk.

Open from 10am to 5pm at Hammond Park on Whaddon

Road, crafts and produce stalls, facepainting, a model railway, a dog show and a martial arts display will also be part of the fun, as well as refreshments and a licensed bar.

It promises to be a day that the entire family can enjoy.

Entry is £3.50 for adults and £1.50 for children under 12 and pensioners.

HEART FM COLUMN

HEART breakfast show presenters Stuart and Natalie wake you up each weekday morning and write to you each week in MK News.

WE CAUGHT up with one of our favourite ex-X Factor contestants this week, Stacey Solomon, who is totally fabulous and a little bit bonkers.

Not only has Stacey just released her autobiography, 'My Story So Far' but she has just completed an underwater photo shoot.

She told us how much diving suited her as 'everything moves so slowly' (we told you she was a little bit bonkers).

We also wanted to know why, at 21, she would want to publish her first book.

She told us she is literally trying everything at the moment, from singing the national anthem at the FA Cup final to all her TV appearances, the book and photo shoots.

She talked us through a typical day in her life and how she balances being a mum with everything else.

It's a really impressive juggling act and she's definitely not as stupid as people think.

We also checked in with some of the stars who turned out on the blue carpet for the latest Pirates of the Caribbean premiere.

The talk of the evening was the amount of make-up Jonny Depp was wearing.

He's also up for another Pirates movie as he loves playing Captain Jack Sparrow but he has been known to slip into character in the most unexpected of places, including in the bath.

Our surprise of the week came from someone called David claiming he was the real deal.

It was none other than David Dickinson, who was filming an episode of the Real Deal at the County Cricket ground in Northampton.

It turned out he was actually looking for a co-presenter and wanted a real 'Bobby Dazzler', hinting at Natalie's availability.

STOWE LANDSCAPE GARDENS

CYCLE RIDE

Bank Holiday Monday, 10.30am-4pm

THE National Trust is launching a cycle ride, ideal for families, giving you new views of the beautiful gardens.

Throughout the day local police community support officers will be helping people to put their postcodes on bikes to help with security. Free puncture kits will also be handed out and each participant will receive a free drinks voucher to use in Stowe's tea room.

The cycling trail is just over three miles long and covers gentle terrain. Supported by CTC, UK's National Cyclists' Organisation, it follows the edge of the gardens along farm tracks and bridleways. Cyclists can see into the gardens for new views of the monuments and temples on the route, which is free to use every day of the year.

To find out more on Stowe Landscape Gardens, log onto www.nationaltrust.org.uk or call 01280 822850.

LEAGUE ONE PLAY-OFF SEMI FINAL

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

THE play-off semi final wasn't lost on Thursday night, it was lost on Sunday.

We were second best in the second leg, but we had the chance to win by more in the first game.

There was the penalty decision and red card that went against us and although Peterborough always have a go, it would have been a lot harder for them to come back from 3-1 or 4-1.

On the night of the second leg we were not at our best and we didn't create as many chances as we normally do, and full credit has to go to Peterborough for that.

They came at us and their home support was tremendous, almost intimidating, and Craig Mackail-Smith showed that he is a quality act.

If we had held out a little bit longer in the second leg then I think we would have been okay.

But we went there to play and get at them and then went behind to a free-kick.

After that we had a couple of opportunities – Angelo had a chance and Daniel Powell hit the bar.

If that had gone in, I think confidence would have flowed and things would have changed on the night.

It wasn't to be and myself, Karl and the players have to take what has happened with humility.

We obviously wish that we had made it through to the final at Old Trafford, but looking back it's been such a great season.

To finish fifth in League One with such a young side is something we can all take a lot of pride from.

The young players have now experienced the play-offs, and the feeling of defeat is not something they will want to feel again.

We can look at what Huddersfield have done last year. They lost in the semi-finals but they have come back this year and got through an extra round.

The work for next season has already started as we have already let four players go – we will be looking to replace them all.

Stuart Searle has been a great servant and help to David Martin, Danny Woodards is a good player who was unfortunately hit by injuries, and Jude Stirling is a wonderful character in the dressing room.

Losing Sean O'Hanlon was heart-breaking as he has been an absolute diamond and someone I have grown very close to off the field.

It was hard announcing the news to the players the morning after the night before, to lose any player from the squad means a hard day.

I would like to sign off by wishing MK NEWS readers a good summer.

Skipper Dean Lewington, manager Karl Robinson and Gary MacKenzie reflect on the defeat as Peterborough fans invade the pitch

Heartbreak for Dons as Posh claim spot in final

Peterborough United 2 (4) MK Dons 0 (3)

THE Dons' promotion dream was brought to a shuddering halt as Peterborough scored in each half to claim victory in the play-off semi final.

Darren Ferguson's side overturned the 3-2 lead Dons took into the vital second leg at London Road and will now face Huddersfield for a place in The Championship.

Dons keeper David Martin was called into action early, smartly saving at his near post after lethal striker Craig Mackail-Smith had combined with Tommy Rowe.

It was a strong save to deny League One's leading scorer but the keeper had a moment he would rather forget just moments later.

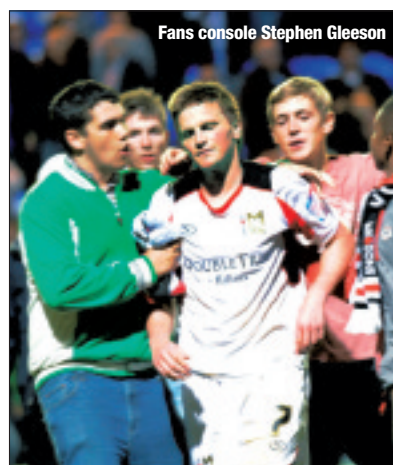

Posh were awarded a free-kick just outside of the box after Lee Tomlin was fouled by Gary MacKenzie, and Grant McCann tried his luck by whipping in a powerful shot towards goal.

Martin, who was standing to the left of the goal, could not get across in time as the ball fizzed towards the bottom right corner and the shot snuck underneath him and into the net.

It was a nervy start from the away side who looked a fraction of the team who dominated against Posh in the first leg.

Peterborough, delighted to have levelled the tie so quickly, were the brighter side early on and would have added a second if Mackail-Smith or James Wesolowski had got even the slightest touch to Grant Baisey's cross which flew across the six-yard box.

Dons barely created an opportunity in the opening half but came agonisingly close to retaking the lead in the tie after 36 minutes when Daniel Powell thundered a close-range volley off the bar, and disaster then struck at the other end early in the second half.

Fans console Stephen Gleeson

A cross was swung in by Tomlin and MacKenzie and Sean O'Hanlon appeared to get in each other's way, allowing George Boyd in for a clear shot on goal.

His effort was superbly blocked by Martin, but the ball fell to Mackail-Smith who slotted home at the second attempt after his initial effort was bravely charged down by Luke Chadwick.

Dons might have had a penalty when Mark Little handled Angelo Balanta's cross in the box, and Tomlin then had a third disallowed for Posh as the referee had already blown for a foul.

Balanta, who was through on goal, was then foiled by Wesolowski's superb saving tackle as he was about to pull the trigger.

It wasn't to be for the Dons who fell at the semi-final stage for the third time in their history.

At the end of the day, it was a highly frustrating evening with few clear cut Dons chances – perhaps summed up by a moment in the second half when Stephen Gleeson and Keanu Marsh-Brown had an on-pitch argument with each other.

Posh keeper Paul Jones, in for the injured Joe Lewis, was not tested enough after having a horror second half in the first leg.

Boss Karl Robinson conceded that his side had not been good enough on the night.

He said: "Over 179 minutes we didn't contribute enough to win the tie.

"Peterborough created many chances and go away deserved winners on the night, but people will forget how good we were on Sunday, and that's the disappointing thing."

Looking back, the boss pointed to Peterborough's controversial first leg penalty, given despite Gleeson's foul on Mark Little taking place outside the box, as a key moment.

He said he hoped that Jon Moss, the referee involved, didn't officiate again 'for a long time to come' following the error and also vowed to use the pain of the defeat to bounce back next season.

"I will come back a stronger manager, we'll come back a stronger team and we'll come back a much stronger club," he said.

"I will come back fully charged as I want to get this team into The Championship."

MK Dons: Martin, Lewington, Kouo-Doumbé, MacKenzie, O'Hanlon (Guy 86) Gleeson, S.Baldock, Balanta, Clayton, Chadwick (Behre 64) Powell (Marsh-Brown 64) Unused subs: Searle, Woodards, G.Baldock, Chicksen.

Vettel increases lead after Hamilton hold

FORMULA ONE

SEBASTIAN Vettel opened up a 41-point lead at the top of the F1 standings after claiming a fourth win in five races at the Spanish Grand Prix.

The German won from second on the grid but needed to be at the top of his game defensively to hold off a late charge from a determined Lewis Hamilton.

Fellow Red Bull star Mark Webber finished back in fourth after taking pole position in qualifying, after Ferrari's Fernando Alonso stormed into the lead at the first bend.

"McLaren and Lewis especially gave us a hard time," Vettel said.

"At the end of the straights he would be right in my mirrors, so you don't know if you should defend or not."

"It was a great result and a good confirmation that we are strong but, as expected, McLaren and Ferrari are giving us a hard time and are pushing hard."

Webber praised Alonso for his start, but admitted it wasn't what he had hoped for at the beginning of the race.

He said: "I don't think my start was hideous, but Fernando got a phenomenal one."

The city-based team now lead the Constructors' Championship by 41 points.

ICE HOCKEY

MK LIGHTNING have announced that forward Andre Smulter is to leave the team after three years.

The 32-year-old Finn has been told he is not part of plans for the new season and that he is free to find another club.

Head coach Nick Poole said the decision was prompted by the need to refresh the Lightning roster.

"Over the last couple of seasons, we've made very few changes to our overall line-up, but we feel that the time has arrived when a freshen-up is needed," he said.

"It was an incredibly difficult decision, but this move is part of a much bigger picture."

Smulter, who scored 33 goals last season, added that he had loved his time in Milton Keynes.

He said: "Everything comes to an end and this is my time to leave."

"I'm happy we won the League title while I was here, but disappointed that we couldn't add a play-off title."

Rowers take triple crown

Josh Vinden prepares to row for Milton Keynes

FOUR rowing clubs battled it out in high winds at the second ever Milton Keynes regatta on Saturday.

Teams from the city, Oundle, Northampton and Bedford all took to the water at Caldecotte Lake to compete for honours.

It was a great day for Milton Keynes who claimed a triple triumph – winning the events for both senior and junior crews as well as a new race which featured beginners to the sport.

The blustery weather consistently blew the boats off course and made conditions extremely challenging.

Of course, this weather also provided an exciting sight for spectators who lined the shore of the lake.

Milton Keynes Rowing Club captain Tim Grossey was delighted with how the regatta went.

He said: "Our second regatta has been a great success and this year's event has given rowers of all levels a chance to compete with other similar clubs, as well as giving the local people a fun day out."

LEADERS North Crawley cruised to victory against bottom club Studham after winning the toss and electing to field.

Studham reached 39 without losing a wicket but then collapsed to 84 all out, with Richard Bryce starring with impressive figures of 4/10.

James Armstrong finished unbeaten on 41 in reply as North Crawley eased past the total to win by seven wickets.

Second-place Milton Keynes City travelled to Olney Town and won by five wickets after bowling out the hosts for 82.

Paul Loveland took 3/3 from his 9.4 overs but Brad Swinger then took three wickets for Olney as MK City struggled over the line.

Milton Keynes CC enjoyed a big 136 run win over Eton Bray after posting 290/3, with Dharmesh Mistry (79) and Neil Gordon (72) in good form.

Eton could only manage 154 with nine batsman failing to reach double figures.

Andrew Norris (80) and Jaco Jacob (31) provided the only resistance, with Nimesh Chavda taking 3/20.

Newport Pagnell made 212/9 against Elstow, with Mick Page blasting exactly 100, but it wasn't enough as Paul Jackson's 81 helped the visitors home by eight wickets. New Bradwell welcomed Biddenham and won by four wickets after restricting their visitors to 159.

James McMillan took 5/26 and John Mulholland's 55 helped New Bradwell home.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE CRICKET LEAGUE

Premier Division

CHERWELL LEAGUE

Division One

BLETCHLEY Town travelled to Oxford and Blethingdon Nondescripts and were beaten by seven wickets.

Batting first, the visitors made a solid start by reaching 74/1, but a horrible spell then saw them fall to 113/9, before a last wicket stand brought the total up to 135. Jordan Gillies and Tim Rattigan both hit half centuries as Oxford reached their total without too many alarms.

Poulter claims match play title

IAN Poulter joined a list of elite golfing names on Sunday by clinching the World Match Play Championship. The Woburn Sands professional was in fine form at Spain's Finca Corstein course, seeing off fellow Englishman Luke Donald 2 and 1 in the final.

By doing so Poulter joins players such as Seve Ballesteros, Nick Faldo, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Arnold Palmer who have all won the prestigious title.

He is also the first player to have won the Match Play titles in both Europe and the United States, following his win at the WGC-Accenture Championships in Arizona in February.

Poulter said: "It's pretty special to win this. I finally started holing some putts. It's been frustrating for a few months as you have to hole putts to win."

The win is Poulter's 14th title in all and his first since victory in the Hong Kong Open in November.

Since then the 35-year-old has had his fair share of critics, and he admitted that questions had been asked of him.

He said: "It's a nice boost, I didn't play my best, but I played the right shots at the right times."

Donald was in front three times in the final, but Poulter dug deep and crucially levelled the match on the 12th with a 40-foot putt.

Two holes later and he was ahead after a birdie, a feat he repeated at the 16th to leave no way back for his opponent. Poulter was also forced to recover after falling down a bank at the eighth when trying to fire out of the rough.

Earlier, he had ousted world number one Lee Westwood in the last 16, claiming a 1 up victory after a birdie at the 17th and a half at the 18th.

In the quarter finals he sensationally beat Italian Francesco Molinari by grabbing birdies at the final three holes to claw back a two hole deficit, before another Houdini act saw him recover from three shots down against Belgian Nicolas Colseauts in the semi-finals.

LEAGUE ONE PLAY-OFF SEMI FINAL

Downcast Dons start rebuild

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

DONS are already looking ahead to next season after their dream of Championship football came to a heartbreaking end at Peterborough.

Karl Robinson's side went into Thursday's make or break play-off second leg with a 3-2 lead but it counted for nothing as Posh triumphed 2-0 on the night to go through 4-3 on aggregate.

Now, both chairman and manager have set their sights on another crack at promotion when the new campaign gets underway.

The task of rebuilding began just a day after the play-off defeat with the release of four players, defenders Sean O'Hanlon, Danny Woodards and Jude Stirling and reserve keeper Stuart Searle. Dons will look to replace all four and transfer targets have already been identified.

Robinson has vowed to use the hurt he felt at London Road on Thursday as the motivation to spur him on in the future.

He said: "I do not want to feel this pain again. It's onwards and upwards for us, it was a positive night in relation to where we want to go."

"I signed a three year contract here for a reason, it's because I care for everyone involved at this club."

O'Hanlon is without question the biggest name to go, as the centre half has racked up nearly 200 appearances since joining from Swindon in 2006.

He was part of the side that won the Johnstone's Paint Trophy and League Two double in 2008 and was described by Robinson as a "phenomenal servant".

Woodards has suffered from injuries since joining in 2009 and is thought to be attracting interest from Championship clubs, while the budget set aside for a reserve keeper led to Searle's release.

Chairman Pete Winkelman said the pressure was on to improve next season and confirmed a transfer budget would be available, which will be neither the biggest or smallest in the league.

He said: "There is a commitment to have a better team than we have now next year, there are enough resources available to look to improve."

Promotion would have doubled the Dons' turnover but Mr Winkelman refused to blame referee Jon Moss, who awarded Peterborough a controversial penalty in the first leg, for potentially costing the club millions.

"We needed two magnificent performances," he said. "But we're obviously so disappointed not to have made the final."

A pre-season friendly at St Neots Town has been arranged for July 9, and the Dons will also train in Ireland.

Q. What's the catch? How can I have a £15,000 Solar Panel installation completely free of charge?

A. There is no 'catch'. The answer is very simple. We would like to rent some of your roof space because the Electricity Supplier will pay us for the electricity generated from the Solar panels which you don't use.

You will be paid (in the form of FREE electricity) for allowing us to install the Solar panels on your roof and we will be paid by the Electricity Supplier for the energy you don't use - it's as simple as that!

This is a Limited Period Offer so act now while it's still available.

Q. Would installing Solar panels effect the saleability or effect the value of my property?

A. YES! your property will be EASIER to sell and installing Solar panels will INCREASE the value of your property!

If you have a mortgage, we have to obtain written consent from the Mortgage Lender before we can install the panels.

Do you know anyone who would not want to have FREE electricity?

The Mortgage Lenders also do not know of anyone who would NOT like to have FREE electricity which is why they are agreeing to free Solar panel installations.

They also realise installing solar panels, generating clean, free electricity, would be an asset to the property.

Q. I thought Solar panels only work in the summer. Is this true?

A. No, it is not true. Solar panels generate FREE electricity ALL YEAR ROUND come rain or shine. The panels only need light to work.

Q. How much will I reduce my electricity bills by?

A. Delighted customers are reporting up to a 70% reduction in their electricity bills.

Q. What happens if I sell the property? A. The new owner simply inherits the FREE electricity.

The COMPLETE installation, including the Solar Panels, all parts & components is FREE OF CHARGE!

There is no catch, there is NOTHING for you to pay - you will simply receive FREE electricity. It is not possible to make this any clearer.
